

Nebraska Wildlife Week 2016
Magnificent Monarchs!
 Poster Contest Rules and Information

The theme for Wildlife Week 2016 is Magnificent Monarchs! It is designed to celebrate the remarkable migrating monarch butterfly and other pollinators that are vital to Nebraska. Wildlife Week information is available on our website, www.NebraskaWildlife.org.

Poster Contest Rules

1. The words of the theme must be printed somewhere on the poster.
2. Draw or paint a poster using pencil, crayons, ink, markers, chalk, paint or watercolors. Posters should reflect the 2016 theme: Magnificent Monarchs! that celebrates monarchs and other pollinators.
3. The poster should be created on 11" x 17" poster paper.
4. On the back of each poster must be printed very legibly:
 - Student name
 - Grade Level
 - Teacher or sponsor's name
 - School or organization name
 - Student's address*

* Note: if your school or organization does not allow you to give out student addresses, please provide a teacher, school or organization address where we can notify the winning entrants.

5. We encourage teachers to send in posters that best typify the theme. Individual entries are also accepted.
6. Include one copy of the entry form below with each set of posters.
7. Mail entries to:
 - Wildlife Week Poster Contest
 - Nebraska Wildlife Federation
 - PO Box 81437
 - Lincoln, NE 68501
8. Entries must be received in or office by Friday, April 1, 2016.
9. Posters will be judged by a committee based on artistic merit and how well they typify the theme. Posters will be judged by grade level (6th, 5th, and 4th and below).
10. Winners will be notified in early April, and will be recognized on Saturday, April 30, at Wild Adventure Day at Pioneers Park in Lincoln.
11. Due to the volume of entries received, entries will not be returned by mail.
12. For more information or questions, email Info@NebraskaWildlife.org.
